EVERYONE WHO IS BAPTISED is welcome to share with us in Communion this morning. There is no need to be a member of the Episcopal Church. Please feel free to celebrate with us.

If you are not baptised or would prefer, you are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing (simply come forward with hands together and head bowed as a sign to the priest).

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ The First Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44

+ Psalm 145:10-19

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

All your works praise you, O Lord and your faithful servants bless you. They make known the glory of your kingdom and speak of your power;

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

That the people may know of your power and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; your dominion endures throughout all ages.

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

The Lord is faithful in all his words and merciful in all his deeds. The Lord upholds all those who fall; he lifts up those who are bowed down. The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season.

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways and loving in all his works. The Lord is near to those who call upon him, to all who call upon him faithfully.

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

+ Second Reading: Ephesians 3:14-21

Gradual Hymn/Acclamation

+ THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 6:1-21

For all we know to be in need of our prayers.

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

Christ is the Head of his body, the Church, and we are the members of that body; gathered this evening to pray in his name, we say:

– Your kingdom come!

May your Church be a light to the nations, the sign and source of your power to unite all people: may she lead humankind to the mystery of your love.

– Your kingdom come!

Guide Bishop Mark and all the bishops of your Church: grant them the gifts of unity, of love, and of peace.

– Your kingdom come!

Lord, give peace to our troubled world; and give to your children security of mind and freedom from anxiety.

– Your kingdom come!

Help us to bring your compassion to the poor, the sick, the lonely, the unloved; lead us to find you in the coming week.

– Your kingdom come!

We pray for all people in their need: let your loving presence be known to them, bless and uphold them.

– Your kingdom come!

Awaken the dead to a glorious resurrection: may we be united with them at the end of time.

– Your kingdom come!

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart and lift them up to God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

SAINTS THIS WEEK -

Saints Mary, Martha & Lazarus of Bethany: 29 July

The gospels describe how Mary, Martha and their brother Lazarus gave Jesus hospitality in their home at Bethany outside Jerusalem. Jesus is said to have loved all three. After Lazarus' death, he wept and was moved by the sisters' grief to bring Lazarus back from the dead. Martha recognised Jesus as the Messiah, while Mary anointed his feet and, on another occasion, was commended by Jesus for her attentiveness to his teaching while Martha served. From this, Mary is traditionally taken to be an example of the contemplative life and Martha an example of the active spiritual life.

St Ignatius Loyola : 31 July

Born in 1491, the son of a Basque nobleman, Ignatius served as a soldier and was wounded at the siege of Pamplona in 1521. During his convalescence he read a Life of Christ, was converted and lived a life of prayer and penance, during which he wrote the first draft of his Spiritual Exercises. He gathered six disciples, and together they took vows of poverty and chastity and promised to serve the Church either by preaching in Palestine or in other ways that the Pope thought fit. By 1540, Ignatius had won papal approval for his embryonic order and the Society of Jesus was born. For the next sixteen years he directed the work of the Jesuits as it spread around the world, until his sudden death on this day in 1556.

CROMARTY YOUTH OPERA

Thought for today

The end of July means the beginning of the corn harvest. The methods of sowing, reaping and threshing the grain have changed with the changing times, but every harvest is still a miracle

Birthdays This coming week

Many Happy Returns to

LOIS MACDONELL

And JANET SPENCE

My husband and I divorced over religious differences. He thought he was God and I didn't.

Wrinkled was not one of the things I wanted to be when I grew up.

Ham and eggs -- a day's work for a chicken, a lifetime commitment for a pig.

Ever stop to think, and forget to start again?

BOOKS

by Elizabeth Sutherland

A wide selection of books written by our own Betty Marshall are available at the back of the Church.
