EVERYONE WHO IS BAPTISED is welcome to share with us in Communion this morning. There is no need to be a member of the Episcopal Church. Please feel free to celebrate with us.

If you are not baptised or would prefer, you are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing (simply come forward with hands together and head bowed as a sign to the priest).

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ The First Reading : Numbers 11:4-6,10-16,24-29

+ Psalm 19:7-14

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; the judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb. By them also is your servant enlightened, and in keeping them there is great reward.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

Who can tell how often he offends? cleanse me from my secret faults. Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

You O Lord, are my strength and my redeemer.

+ Second Reading : James 5:13-20

Gradual Hymn/Acclamation

+ THE HOLY GOSPEL : Mark 9:38-50

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

God our Father has bound himself to us in an everlasting covenant. In thankfulness and faith, we pray to him:

– Lord, bless your people!

In Christ you have given a new covenant to men:

may they know the greatness which they have inherited.

– Lord, bless your people!

Gather into one all who bear the name of Christian, that the world may believe in the Christ you have sent.

– Lord, bless your people!

Pour out your love on our friends, and on all whom we know; may they carry with them the gentleness of Christ.

– Lord, bless your people!

Comfort the dying; may they know your saving love.

– Lord, bless your people!

Show your mercy to the dead;

may they find their rest in Christ.

– Lord, bless your people!

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart and lift them up to God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

There will be higher hills to climb and stronger foes to conquer yet.
