THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ The First Reading : Daniel 12:1-3

+ Psalm 16

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good above all other." All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot. My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope. For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the Pit.

Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore Lord, in your presence there is fullness of joy.

+ Second Reading : Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Gradual Hymn/Acclamation

+ THE HOLY GOSPEL : Mark 13:1-8

PRAYER REQUESTS

We pray...for grace to be Jesus' hands, feet, voice, eyes & heart in the world...that we all may LIVE and BE the GOOD NEWS.

OUR WORLD

For justice and peace in Yemen, the Holy Land and, indeed, the world over. For an end to hatred in all its forms. For our fellow Christians and all who are persecuted for their faith.

OUR COMMUNION

Pray for the peace and unity of the Church. Pray for our brothers and sisters of the Diocese of Bermuda : Bishop Nicholas Dill.

OUR DIOCESE

In response to a call from the Archbishops of Central American & Mexico...this from our Primus: Scotland is a country that is known for its hospitality and concern for human rights. Over the years we have seen many of our people migrate across the seas to all corners of the earth. Today, migration remains an issue with which we continue to grapple. As Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church, I call upon people in our churches to hold in prayer our most vulnerable brothers and sisters travelling with the Caravan, and for those involved in seeking a resolution to the difficulties that lie ahead. For those of us who are followers of Christ, we have a duty to remember those crying out for safe harbour and support, whether in the Americas or in Europe. In them, we see the Crucified Christ most clearly.

For Mark, our Bishop and for our brothers and sisters who work in & support our Foodbanks...and for all whom they benefit. For the Highlands Supports Refugees and all who help. Pray for our sister Dioceses (Quebec, Canada & Tuam, Killala and Achonry, Ireland).

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

Through Christ we are sons of God: in him we see what we shall be when we come to the Father. With confidence we pray:

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Guide leaders and governments: give them wisdom and integrity. – Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

You are the Lord and source of our freedom: bring those in captivity of mind or body to the freedom of the children of God.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Give courage and strength to the young. Help them to choose their work, and make the right decisions for their way of life.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Give patient tolerance to all who are no longer young; open the hearts of the young to accept from them understanding and love.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Receive the departed into your eternal kingdom; sustain our hope to reign with you for ever.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart with those listed above and lift them up to God. Conclude with the Lord's Prayer
