THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ The First Reading : Isaiah 6:1-8

+ Psalm 138:1-4,9

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing your praise.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, because of your love and faithfulness.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

For you have glorified your Name and your word above all things. When I called, you answered me; you increased my strength within me.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

The Lord will make good his purpose for me; O Lord, your love endures for ever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

In Christ you have made a new covenant with all creation: may we know the greatness which we have inherited.

– Lord, bless your people!

Gather into one all who bear the name of Christian, that the world may believe in the Christ you have sent.

– Lord, bless your people!

Pour out your love on our friends, and on all whom we know; may they carry with them the gentleness of Christ.

– Lord, bless your people!

Comfort the dying; may they know your saving love.

– Lord, bless your people!

Show your mercy to the dead; may they find their rest in Christ.

– Lord, bless your people!

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart with those listed above and lift them up to God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME

There was a Christian lady who was diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. So as she was getting her things "in order," she contacted her priest and had him come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes. She told him which hymns she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read, and what outfit she wanted to be buried in. The woman also requested to be buried with her favourite Bible. Everything was in order and the priest was preparing to leave when the woman suddenly remembered something very important to her.

"There's one more thing," she said excitedly.

"What's that?" came the priest's reply.

"This is very important," the woman continued. "I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand."

The priest stood looking at the woman, not knowing quite what to say. "That surprises you, doesn't it?", the woman asked. "Well, to be honest, I'm puzzled by the request," said the priest.

The woman explained, "In all my years of attending church socials and potluck dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main courses were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, "Keep your fork." It was my favourite part because I knew that something better was coming...like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful, and with substance! So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand and I want them to wonder, "What's with the fork?" Then I want you to tell them: "Keep your fork. The best is yet to come."
