EVERYONE WHO IS BAPTISED is welcome to share with us in Communion this morning. There is no need to be a member of the Episcopal Church. Please feel free to celebrate with us.

If you are not baptised or would prefer, you are welcome to come forward and receive a blessing (simply come forward with hands together and head bowed as a sign to the priest).

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

PLEASE NOTE

Today in our Eucharist we will only have the Passion According to Saint Luke (22:14-23:56) as our Reading.

This will be done with Narrator, 3 Readers and the Congregation.

PRAYER REQUESTS

We pray...for grace to be Jesus' hands, feet, voice, eyes & heart in the world...that we all may LIVE and BE the GOOD NEWS.

OUR WORLD

For the peace and stability of the UK & for the guidance of the Spirit for our leaders. For New Zealand & her people. For Venezuela & her people. For the situation between Ukraine & Russia. For justice and peace in Yemen, the Holy Land and, indeed, the world over. For an end to terrorism and hatred in all its forms. For our fellow Christians and all who are persecuted for their faith.

OUR COMMUNION

Pray for the peace and unity of the Church. Pray for our brothers and sisters of the Church of Jerusalem & the Middle East : Archbishop Suheil Dawani.

OUR DIOCESE

Pray for our Bishop & Priests as they renew their vows on Thursday. For all our brothers & sisters in the Porvoo Communion of Churches. For Russell, Jane, Peter, Donald, Susan, Jennifer, Annie and all who are studying for Ordination or Readership...for their instructors & all who support them. For Mark, our Bishop. For Inverness Street Pastors. For our brothers & sisters of St Andrew's, Tain; St Finnbarr's, Dornoch ; St Maelrubha's Mission, Lairg. For our sister Dioceses (Quebec, Canada & Tuam, Killala and Achonry, Ireland).

OUR CHURCH & COMMUNITY

FAMILY & FRIENDS

For Cameron M. For Diana S. For Ann & Ray N. For Tom McC. For Mark W & loved ones. For Janet S as she studies for ordination. For Louise & Hayden J. For those whose relationships / marriages are struggling. Pray for our Sunday Club in St Regulus'. For our Teen Gatherings. For Karen & her family in Guatemala. For James and his work in Biblical translation in Nigeria. For all we know to be in need of our prayers.

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

Let us pray humbly to the Saviour of all people. He went up to Jerusalem to endure the passion and enter into his glory.
– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

Christ our Redeemer, let us share in your passion by works of penitence; let us attain the glory of your resurrection.
– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

As your Sorrowful Mother gave you comfort and strength, so, O Comforter of the afflicted, help us to extend to others the consolation you have given us.

– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

Take care of those we have discouraged and those we have wronged; help us to learn from our sufferings so that justice and love may prevail in the end.

– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

You humbled yourself even to accepting death, death on a cross; grant to your servants obedience and patience.

– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

Share with the dead your bodily glory; let us rejoice one day with them in the fellowship of the saints.

– Sanctify the people you redeemed by your blood.

ONE SOLITARY LIFE

He was born in an obscure village. The child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty when public opinion turned against him. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never went to college. He never visited a big city. He never travelled more than two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He did none of the things usually associated with greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He was only thirty three. His friends ran away. One of them denied him. He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing the only property he had on earth. When he was dead he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone and today Jesus is the central figure of the human race, and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that have ever marched, all the navies that have ever sailed, all the parliaments that have ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned put together have not affected the life of mankind on earth as powerfully as that one solitary life!

Thought for today

Life upon this little globe is just an episode.
A journey: and we pass but once along this bit of road.
So do to others as you would that they should do to you.
You will not come this way again.
You're only passing through.

Following a process of advertisement and interview, the Very Rev Ian Barcroft has been appointed as the new full-time Provincial Director of Ordinands with effect from 1 June 2019.

The Most Rev Mark Strange, Bishop of Moray Ross and Caithness and Primate of the Scottish Episcopal Church said “On behalf of the College of Bishops, I express our delight at Dean Barcroft’s prospective appointment. He will take up post at a time when new processes and procedures for the discernment of vocation are in the course of being adopted and he will bring to the post the vision, energy, and enthusiasm to enable us to move forward and develop this crucial area of our Church’s life. Dean Barcroft will work closely with the Scottish Episcopal Institute, at this time when the Institute is developing new modes of training for all ministries across the province. We will benefit immensely from his experience over many years as a priest in this Church, as well as more recently as Dean of the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway.

“Dean Barcroft will take over from the Rev Canon Dr Alison Peden who retires from the position during the summer. We owe Canon Peden a huge debt of gratitude for her dedication to the role since 2011 and her faithful guidance and support of those exploring a vocation to ordained ministry. We wish her every blessing as she prepares to retire from this aspect of her own ministry.”

SATURDAY MORNINGS

FORTROSE TOWN HALL

10.30 till 12.00

Coffee Mornings with Home Bakes

Come and join us - all welcome

To the Sunday Tea Rota Ladies -

Hi all. Many thanks for continuing to help with the coffees. I'm conscious that there is no real system for replenishing coffee, etc., although jars just seem to appear! In an emergency you should find coffee, sugar etc. in the plastic boxes under the back pew which we use for the town hall on a Saturday. If you notice a shortage for Sunday mornings and are minded to replenish do please claim from the treasurer if you wish. I will endeavour to keep a closer eye on supplies!

It's that time again - time to register for Rural Mission Sunday!

Rural Mission Sunday is an opportunity to celebrate the life of the rural church and the real difference rural Christians can and do make in their communities. This year we're thinking about what it means to live out our faith in everyday life, and we've chosen three Bible passages which we think help us to reflect on three key facets of doing that:

The story of Jesus inviting Peter and Andrew, James and John to follow him and become 'fishers of people' (Mark 1:16-20) reminds us that every one of us is called by Jesus.

When we read about the early church, gathering in people's homes and in the temple, (Acts 2:42-47), we're challenged to think about how we might deepen our discipleship.

Reflecting on the tale Jesus tells of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), we discover a surprising example of the power of everyday faith.

As you celebrate Rural Mission Sunday 2019 our prayer is that you will experience God's presence as you explore how you and your church community can Live The Life together.

Everyone who registers for Rural Mission Sunday before 1 June will receive a free copy of Country Way magazine.
