THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Readers & Intercessors

St J : Family / Family / Family / Gail S

St A : Alison G / Simon S / Marjorie T / Dorothy W

+ First Reading : Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

+ Psalm 8

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

O LORD our Governor,
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
Out of the mouths of infants and children your majesty is praised above the heavens.

You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, to quell the enemy and the avenger.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

When I consider your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars
you have set in their courses,
What is man that you should be mindful of him?
the son of man that you should seek him out?

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

You have made him
but little lower than the angels;
you adorn him with glory and honour;
You give him mastery
over the works of your hands;
you put all things under his feet:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

All sheep and oxen,
even the wild beasts of the field,
The birds of the air, the fish of the sea,
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.

+ Second Reading : Romans 5:1-5

Gradual Hymn / Alleluia

+ The Holy Gospel : John 16:12-15

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

The will of Christ is for all men to be saved. Let us pray that his will may be done.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

Lord, by your sacrifice on the cross you redeemed us from the slavery of sin: lead us to the freedom and glory of the sons of God.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

Be with our bishop, Mark, and all the bishops of your Church: grant them courage and compassion in their ministry.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

Help those who seek the truth to find it: let them be consecrated in truth.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

We pray especially for peace in family life, and for those orphaned and widowed: comfort them in your love.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

May our departed brothers and sisters come to the heavenly city: there, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you will reign for ever.

– Draw all people to yourself, Lord.

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart with those listed above and lift them up to God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

JAMES BRAIDWOOD

Many in the congregations of the Charge may well be unaware but the great, great, great grandfather of one of our members, Diana Hamilton-Jones, was the father of the modern fire service.

Having founded the world's first municipal fire service in Edinburgh in 1824 James Braidwood was invited to become the first Superintendent of the London Fire Engine Establishment in 1833.

A brave and brilliant life (he had invented such things as a chain ladder fire escape) was tragically cut short when on 22nd June

1861, he died while attending the Great Tooley Street fire which started in Cotton's

Wharf and which burned for two weeks causing millions of pounds worth of damage.

On Sunday, 23rd June, at the 11:30am Eucharist in St Andrew's we will mark the anniversary of his death 158 years ago. Members of the Scottish Fire Service will be in attendance and their Chaplain, Christina McCrae will be our guest preacher.
