THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ First Reading : Genesis 18:20-32

+ Psalm 138:1-4,9

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I will sing your praise.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, because of your love and faithfulness.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

For you have glorified your Name and your word above all things. When I called, you answered me; you increased my strength within me.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

The Lord will make good his purpose for me; O Lord, your love endures for ever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

In the sight of the angels, O Lord, I will sing your praises.

+ Second Reading : Colossians 2:6-15

Gradual Hymn / Alleluia

A DAILY PRAYER for the WEEK

Let us ask the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name, to send the Spirit of his Son into our hearts as we pray:

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

O Lord, the creator and redeemer of all mankind, we humbly pray for our brothers and sisters of every race in every kind of need: Make your ways known to them, and reveal your salvation to all nations.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

May the whole Church be guided and governed by your Holy Spirit; let all who call themselves Christians be led into the way of truth and hold the faith in unity of spirit.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We commend to your fatherly goodness all who are afflicted or distressed; comfort and relieve them according to their need, and grant them the love and consolation of your Spirit.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Father, give a place of life and rest to those who have died in your peace: may we share with them in the glory of Jesus Christ, who died to save us all.

– Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In a moment of silence, call to mind the concerns of your own heart with those listed above and lift them up to God.

Conclude with the Lord's Prayer.

Taizé:

An Evening Prayer

for people of any church tradition, or none.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church
Academy Street, Fortrose, IV10 8RX

First Sunday of every month,
6.15pm for 6.30pm - until 7.15pm

This informal monthly evening prayer is based on the pattern of worship used by the ecumenical Taizé Community in France. It is faithful to the Church's centuries-old tradition of evening prayer whilst being very contemporary. It involves a mixture of meditative songs, scripture readings, spoken prayers, and a period of silence. It offers an oasis of peace, a chance - before the business of the week - to stop and dwell quietly with others in prayer. If wordy worship is not for you, if you enjoy stillness and simplicity, this monthly evening prayer in the style of Taizé may be just what you are looking for.

Glenalmond 2019

The annual provincial youth week at Glenalmond runs this year from 21-27 July. It will bring together 23 leaders and 59 young people from all over the Province for a week that deepens young people's commitment to God, to each other and to the Scottish Episcopal Church. The Youth Committee has offered the following prayer for use within the Church:

Lord, we pray for the Provincial Youth Week.

May your Holy Spirit move through the fun and friendships,
speak through the worship and teaching,
inspire the leaders, renew their energy
and breathe into the hearts of our young people, filling them with new life.

Amen.
