THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

+ First Reading : Deuteronomy 30:15-20

+ Psalm 1:1-3

The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

Their delight is in the law of the Lord, and they meditate on his law day and night.

The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; everything they do shall prosper.

The Lord knows the way of the righteous.

◆ Second Reading : Philemon 1-21

Gradual Hymn / Alleluia

+ The Holy Gospel : Luke 14:25-33

St Luke the Evangelist in Auchmuty has received £375,235 to run its Peace n Jam café for the next three years.

The scheme will benefit around 500 people, as well as creating 20 volunteering opportunities.

The Rev Gerry Dillon said it would "allow people, many of whom would otherwise be socially isolated, to come together to build relationships and benefit from low cost nutritious meals."

Thought for today

The mind needs its Sabbath as well as the body. A day of rest is a necessity for overworked brains and overstrained nerves. It is a good thing to pause every seventh day and rest your mind in quietness, contemplating those things which lie beyond the fret and fever of the workaday world.

Six days shalt thou labour - Exodus 20

Gail has pointed out an error in the Congregational Minute, she writes that I should have said

“The I&C Board will not be managed locally. The other Provincial Boards/Committees will deal with their own I&C. There will still be paid professionals dealing with the media etc.”

SAINTS THIS WEEK

The MARTYRS of NEW GUINEA (2 Sept)

The church in Papua New Guinea has been enriched by martyrdom twice in the twentieth century. James Chalmers, Oliver Tomkins and some companions were sent to New Guinea by the London Missionary Society. They met their death by martyrdom in 1901. Forty years later, during the Second World War, New Guinea was occupied by the Imperial Japanese Army and Christians were severely persecuted. Among those who died for the faith were two English priests, Vivian Redlich and John Barge, who remained with their people after the invasion of 1942 but were betrayed and beheaded, together with seven Australians and two Papuan evangelists, Leslie Gariadi and Lucian Tapiedi.

*“Everywhere, wherever you may find yourself,
you can set up an altar to God in your mind
by means of prayer.” – St John Chrysostom*
